Summary

The Benefits Manager will be responsible for managing execution and administration of the benefits programs for Japan, as well as participating in designing the program and leading implementation of the global program/technology platform. This role will ensure that the benefits operations are effectively managed, compliant with local regulations, and aligned with the company's overall Rewards strategy. The Benefits Manager will work closely with various stakeholders, including HR, finance, and external vendors, to deliver high-quality and human centered benefits services to employees

About the Role

- Benefits Program Management: Design, implement, and manage employee benefits programs, including insurance, retirement plans, wellness programs, group insurance, housing benefits, and other employee perks.
- Compliance: Ensure all benefits programs comply with local laws and regulations. Stay updated on changes in legislation and adjust programs as necessary.
- Vendor Management: Manage relationships with external benefits providers, negotiate contracts, and ensure service level agreements are met.
- Employee Communication: Develop and deliver communication strategies to educate employees about their benefits options and any changes to the programs.
- Data Analysis: Analyze benefits data to assess program effectiveness and identify areas for improvement. Provide regular reports to senior management.
- Budget Management: Develop and manage the benefits budget, ensuring cost-effectiveness and alignment with the company's financial goals.
- Collaboration: Work closely with HR, finance, and other departments to ensure benefits programs support overall business objectives and employee needs.
- Project Leadership: Lead the project for the global rewards and benefits platform in Japan, effectively managing stakeholder engagement, process analysis, and communication with global teams.
