The Novartis IP Legal team is seeking a new Senior IP Counsel to lead, manage, and execute IP activities in the Commercial IP team, ensuring the highest quality and successful implementation of patent and regulatory exclusivity litigation strategies for IM commercial and later-stage development products worldwide.

About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

- Develop and implement highest quality patent and regulatory exclusivity strategies for IM commercial and later-stage development products worldwide, including litigations, due diligences, and third-party strategies.
- Lead complex and high-impact patent and regulatory exclusivity litigations for IM commercial and later-stage development products, including coordination and management of outside counsel, ensuring the use of best litigation practices, and that litigation is of the highest quality, is consistent across the portfolio of matters, and is appropriately reported and budgeted.
- Build relationships with internal business partners, and provide clear, informed, and strategic counseling on all aspects of patent and regulatory exclusivity issues relating to IM commercial and later-stage development products.
- Role-modeling collaboration and problem solving approaches, and training and coaching IP colleagues on best practices and highest-quality litigation strategies.
- Be a highly contributing member of the Commercial IP team and collaborate with other Novartis IP and legal colleagues to ensure all IP objectives are met.

Essential Requirements:

Education:

- Preferred academic domain (B. Sc. or higher) – chemical sciences or biological sciences
- Law Degree from accredited U.S. law school
- Registration to practice before U.S. Patent and Trademark Office

Languages:

- Proficient in English, additional languages beneficial

Experience:

- At least 8 years experience in IP litigation role in private or corporate practice, with both US and international IP litigation required.
- Industry and/or significant case experience in life sciences required.

Novartis Compensation and Benefit Summary: The pay range for this position at commencement of employment is expected to be between $222,400.00 - $333,600.00 USD per year; however, while salary ranges are effective from 1/1/24 through 12/31/24, fluctuations in the job market may necessitate adjustments to pay ranges during this period. Further, final pay determinations will depend on various factors, including, but not limited to geographical location, experience level, knowledge, skills, and abilities.
