Zusammenfassung

As a Customer Engagement & Innovation Manager at Novartis, you will play a crucial role in transforming our customer engagement strategies. Leveraging our omnichannel model, you aim to deliver unparalleled customer experiences, secure a competitive advantage, and help achieve our business objectives in Poland. Your mission includes implementing innovative solutions to address key pain points in the customer journey (patients, HCPs, HCS) and ensuring a smoother, expedited path to treatment for priority brands. You will also manage the data lifecycle, utilizing statistical methods and machine learning to derive actionable insights and automate processes. If managing a team, you will provide guidance and support to foster a motivated and efficient team.

We seek determined and innovative individuals ready to revolutionize customer engagement and improve patient outcomes. Join us in making a significant impact on healthcare.

About the Role

Localization: Warsaw
