About the Role

Key Responsibilities:

Functional Strategy Planning, Prioritization, & Execution

- Partner with Head US Social Impact to refine and operationalize the US strategy to advance community health solutions for enhanced patient access, including embedding the strategy across US functions and business units.
- Build relationships and collaborate closely with key US functional teams and business units to drive strategy execution.
- Work closely with US cross-functional partners, namely US Commercial, Integrated Decision Sciences, Research & Development, and Market Access, to analyze opportunities and barriers related to our strategic pillars and leverage analytic insights to prioritize efforts.
- Collaborate with US Commercial, R&D, and Market Access teams to develop functional action plans for execution and associated KPIs, which align with Novartis US business objectives and our strategy to enhance patient access.
- In partnership with US functions and business units, regularly assess opportunities to refine and update action plans to maximize impact, optimize resources, and ensure alignment with latest internal and external developments.

Cross-Functional Engagement and Governance

- Drive enhanced identification of synergies and collaboration in development of cross-functional action plans embedding the patient access strategy.
- Support establishing and operationalizing governing body for US strategy.
- Collaborate in the development of function-specific and US enterprise focused metrics to inform decision making, identify areas for improvement, and drive accountability.

- Monitor industry, patient access, and social impact emerging trends, best practices, and advancements to identify opportunities for innovation, growth, and refinement of the US strategy.

Essential Requirements:

- 10+ years industry experience in pharma, biotech, such as commercial or market access
- Strong understanding of therapeutic area-related projects with profit and loss as a metric for gauging success
- Demonstrated knowledge of health disparities, social determinants of health, and health equity principles and practices
- Strong project management skills, with track record of successfully leading and delivering complex projects with multiple stakeholders, ensuring timely delivery and successful outcomes
- Creative and innovative thinking that pulls from external insights and practices to strengthen and evolve strategies and programs
- Strong analytical and problem-solving skills, with experience in using data to drive decision-making.

Desirable Requirements:

- Bachelor's Degree required
- MD, PhD or other advanced healthcare degree preferred
